Description

A lovely quality 19th Century pollard oak cabinet / chiffonier, having a mirrored shelf superstructure with three quarter brass gallery, supported on turned columns, wonderfully figured top above two doors with pleated material panels opening to reveal a single fixed shelf inside, carved and fluted columns either side of the doors, supported on a moulded edge plinth base. This cabinet is in excellent condition, lovely warm oak colour and as it's made from pollard oak it has so much character. Circa 1840.
