Description

A stunning quality 19th Century mahogany collectors cabinet very much in the manner and style of Gillows, the two door top enclosing fourteen oak lined drawers with ebony cock beading and sunken ebony handles, the doors have got curl veneer and cross banded panels with ebony inlay, the sides mirror the doors, the stand is also of very best quality with a single oak lined drawer with ebony cock beading, the four turned and reeded legs are stunning with carved decoration and very fine detail. This piece would grace any home. Circa 1830.
