Description

A superb quality 19th Century Anglo Indian carved sofa, the shaped back profusely carved with various foliage, the frame connecting down to the highly carved and decorative front supports incorporating mythical figure heads at each side, having a shaped apron below in the sale style as the top frame and supported on caved and shaped legs terminating on scroll feet. Having a drop in upholstered cushioned seat fits nicely onto the sofa and having a matching cushion. The frame itself is in excellent condition, lovely crisp carving all over. Circa 1860.
