Description

A fabulous quality and unique early 19th Century serpentine shaped mahogany chest of drawers, having a lovely figured top above a selection of six mahogany lined drawers with brass engraved swan neck handles, a single drawer at the top with the drawer front configuration making it look like it's three small drawers, two smaller drawers either side below and a single drawer at the bottom, at the centre of the chest there is tambour slide opening to reveal a cupboard with plenty of compartment space, supported on ogee bracket feet. Circa 1810.
