Description

19th Century mahogany whatnot with cellarette, the top shelf supported by elegant turned columns and having decorative turned finials on the top shelf, with bold carved decoration and the same style carved decoration below, the base section having a single oak lined drawer with original turned knob handles opening to reveal a cellarette, with the drawer front making it look like there are three drawers, supported on turned feet terminating on brass cap and castors. Circa 1860.
