Description

A fabulous quality near pair of freestanding early 20th Century mahogany and inlaid Carlton house desk's, b oth desks having a super structure comprising of four mahogany inlaid drawers at the centre with original b rass turned knob handles, cupboards either side with workable lock and key with a single fixed shelf inside, t here is a pull out writing slide with a black leather writing surface decorated with blind and gold tooling, s tationary compartments either side with lift up lids to reveal a pen tray and various compartments, at each c orner there are pull out letter slides with concave fronts and at the top there are letter slots, both letter slides a nd the lift up stationary compartments also have workable locks and keys. The frieze below having two m ahogany lined drawers with original brass ring handles, standing on square tapering legs with with spade f eet.

Both desks are near identical in every way including the dimensions, the only difference is the inlaid figure heads on the lift up lids and sides, one is of a male and the other a female, so they could be used as "His & Hers" writing desks. The desks are in excellent condition and profusely inlaid all over incorporating various figure heads, urns and floral inlay. Circa 1910.
